

Nursery Newsletter

Please remember to look at the notice board/whiteboard for more information.

Core Start Times

Can parents please ensure that children are in nursery for our core start times in order to prevent them from missing out on daily activities and learning experiences. Our Bee Active sessions will be starting shortly & our Forest Walks are continuing. Morning and Full day children should be in nursery no later than 8.45am and afternoon children no later than 12.15pm.

Twitter

We continue to update our twitter account regularly. We will often share information on events taking place within the nursery as well as photographs and information about what we have been doing and learning.
Twitter: @Whitdalenursery

Snack

Snack is payable through ipayimpact or in nursery at a cost of £1.50 per week. A minimum payment of £5 is preferred if paying by cash. Thank you.

A total of £18.31 was raised for Red Nose Day

Dinosaur Fact

The name dinosaur means 'frighteningly big lizard'

Sorry this section is a moan.

Our reception area is very busy again with scooters and bikes that they are now becoming obstacles for visitors and staff. Can we please ask that these be taken home or secured in the bike park provided. Big Bedtime Read packs should be returned only on your child's library day.
Monday- Green Group      Tuesday- Red Group
Wednesday- Yellow Group      Thursday- Blue Group
Purple Group-Return books on your child's last day in nursery.

Parent Helpers

In order for our Forest Walks to continue we need parent/carers to join us for one morning or afternoon each week. If you are interested please ask a member of staff for a disclosure form. Our students have been an asset which has enabled us to carry out these valuable outdoor learning sessions but sadly their time with us ends in May.
